

Website terms & conditions

Use of our web site is subject to a number of simple conditions (the “Conditions of Use”, as set out below). Please take a few moments to read them; if you have comments then feel free to contact us.

On accessing the website, on this and on each subsequent occasion, you will be deemed to have read and accepted these Conditions of Use and you accept that you will be bound by them. Audatex SA (PTY) Ltd (Audatex SA) reserves the right to alter the Conditions of Use at any time and it is your obligation to check if changes have been made. Your use of this web site after changes are posted online shall constitute acceptance of the revised Conditions of Use.

If you do not agree to abide by any of these Conditions of Use, you must stop using this site immediately.

Disclaimer

Nothing on this website shall constitute an offer by Audatex SA to provide Audatex SA services to any person accessing this website.

The website is provided “as is” and Audatex SA gives no warranties, conditions, guarantees or representations, express or implied, that this website will be available without interruption or that it is error, virus or bug free.

Audatex SA does not give any warranty or representation, express or implied, about the accuracy, completeness, merchantability or appropriateness for any particular purpose or non-infringement of any information, materials or graphics on this website. Your use of this website shall be at your own risk, and except as provided for in the contractual terms relating to the provision of its services, Audatex SA shall not be liable for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage arising from your reliance on any information contained on this website, or your use of this website, or for any typographical or other errors or omissions within the material contained on this website.

Copyright & other rights

Except where expressly acknowledged on the website, Audatex SA is the proprietor of all other intellectual property rights detailed within.

All Audatex SA trademarks, names, and logos are the proprietary marks of Audatex SA or its associated companies. Marks identifying third parties are owned or licensed by those third parties or their associated companies.

Nothing in these Conditions of Use in any way confers on you any license or right under any trade marks, names or logos of Audatex SA or any third party, and any unauthorised use may lead to infringement action being taken.

Prohibited acts

In consideration of Audatex SA agreeing to permit you to access this web site, you agree that you will not copy, reproduce, redistribute, download, republish, transmit, display, adapt, alter, create derivative works from or otherwise extract or re-utilise any material appearing on this website except where specific facilities are provided for this purpose.

Linked sites

This website may contain hyperlinks to websites operated by parties other than Audatex SA or its associated companies. Audatex SA does not control such websites and is not responsible for their content. Audatex SA’s inclusion of hyperlinks to such websites does not imply any endorsement of the material, information, or statements contained on the website or of the owners or operators thereof.

You may only create a hypertext link to this website from another website with our written permission. To obtain permission please submit details of your website please contact us. Audatex SA shall be entitled to withdraw any permission given by notice in writing to you, in which case you must remove the hypertext link without delay.

Privacy – how we use information about you

We take all the necessary steps to ensure the security of your transaction with us and to protect the privacy of the information you give to us.

Audatex SA is required to meet the requirements stipulated within the Protection of Personal Information Act 2013 (South Africa).

We do not ask for any information about you in order to let you use our site. Such use is subject to our terms and conditions stipulated within this document.

However, it is necessary for us to capture and retain information on you and your enquiries in order to provide you with the queries relating to the services you buy from us. Information on the fact of your enquiry with us, or on the data provided to you in return, remains confidential and will only be provided to third parties for marketing purposes where you have given us your explicit consent at the time of purchase. Where consent has been given, it is our policy only to deal with third parties who can offer special benefits to Audatex SA customers.

Audatex SA is committed to fighting crime and works closely with law enforcement agencies, especially the police, to investigate vehicle theft and fraud. We value the information that such agencies provide, which helps all our customers avoid the risks presented by stolen vehicles.

In return, when you buy our services, you agree that we may provide data about you and your enquiry to the police or other law enforcement agencies, where doing so will assist them in their enquiries. You should also be aware that under Chapter 4 Section 37 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 2013 (South Africa), the police and other agencies can require us to disclose this information, again without your consent.

Unsubscribing from emails

If at any time you wish to have your information removed from our active databases, please contact us. You can also unsubscribe any time by clicking on the unsubscribe link at the bottom of all our email communication.
